

Prize Certificate

- One of the two K-Theory Prizes of the K-Theory Foundation, Inc. for 2014 is awarded to Joseph Ayoub for his work on setting up Grothendieck's six-functor formalism in motivic stable homotopy, and for his work comparing motivic and analytic cohomology of sheaves.

Prize Certificate

- One of the two K-Theory Prizes of the K-Theory Foundation, Inc. for 2014 is awarded to Moritz Kerz for his work on Milnor K-theory, on conjectures of Beilinson, Levine, and Kato, and on obstructions to lifting K-theory classes to formal neighborhoods.